

Journal Submission Services

Journal Submission Service

Journal submission is a detailed and time-consuming process. Each journal has distinct submission requirements, and every aspect of a journal's requirements must be determined and satisfied even if changes to your manuscript are required. This service will save you time and frustration.

- > The required information is entered accurately and completely
- > Reviewers you wish to recommend, or exclude, are listed with accurate contact information
- > The journal process for document upload is completed

What can our journal Submission Experts do for you?

Formatting

- > Confirm that your article conforms to journal formatting requirements. Remind customers of the documents necessary for submission.

At this time, our editors write a submission letter according to the content of your article.

Author's registration

- > We register for an account in your name on the journal website and provide all your professional details.
- > Select your preferred contact email address for journal correspondence. You may select one of two email types when making a submission
- > Use your own email for submission purposes.

- > When you receive an answer from your target journal, forward it to us and we will assist you with subsequent steps
- > Apply for a new email address and provide us with the user name and password. We will deal with subsequent follow-up and processing.

Technical Support

- > Write an initial submission cover letter to the editor if necessary. We follow the journal's cover letter template if available.

Uploading the Submission

- > Fill in the online submission form and upload your file in the format and file size required by the journal. We prefer attaching figures separately to allow for easy resizing. We name your file(s) in accordance with the journal's file naming specifications.

Approving Submission

- > We approve the submission on author's behalf and intimate the author regarding the same via email

this service does not include

The journal submission service does not include formatting. If you would like us to help you format your article, please notify us.

We will check the journal's Instructions to Authors and contact you if any modifications of your paper are required, or if additional information is needed to complete your submission.
