

Career Paths at American Journal Experts: Bridging Science and Publication

OVERVIEW OF AJE:

- AJE is a global leader in high-quality, ethical author services. It is a network and team of former academics and publishing professionals determined to change the world. AJE provides English language editing, academic translation, and other manuscript preparation services, all backed by a 100% satisfaction guarantee.

FREELANCE OPPORTUNITIES AT AJE:

- AJE offers freelance opportunities for individuals from all scholarly fields. Freelance editors at AJE can choose their own assignments and work remotely from anywhere in the US.

WORKING ENVIRONMENT:

- Freelancers at AJE enjoy flexible work schedules, independence, and comprehensive support. AJE has been a remote-first company for over 15 years, supporting independent, remote work.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FREELANCE EDITORS:

TO BECOME A FREELANCE CONTRACT EDITOR WITH AJE, APPLICANTS MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING QUALIFICATIONS

- Be enrolled in a graduate program or possess a graduate degree.
- Have native English proficiency.
- Have a documented current or former affiliation with an accredited, not-for-profit, US college or university with selective admission policies.

BRIDGING SCIENCE AND PUBLICATION:

- AJE plays a crucial role in bridging science and publication by providing a platform for researchers to get their work published. AJE's team of advanced degree-holding experts provides services that help authors prepare their manuscripts for publication. This bridges the gap between scientific research and its publication, thereby promoting the dissemination of scientific knowledge.

RECOGNITION:

- AJE has been recognized for publishing innovation and for promoting a flexible and family-friendly work environment.
- It has received awards from top names in the business, research, and publishing communities.

FULL-TIME OPPORTUNITIES:

- In addition to freelance positions, Research Square Company, which AJE is a part of, is also hiring full-time, non-freelance positions.
